

CASTLE STREET METHODIST CHURCH

"Where all are welcome – all the time"

www.castlestreet.org.uk

Sunday 22nd June 2014

Welcome to worship with us – whether this is the first time you have entered our church, or if you are a long-standing member of our congregation. We seek to offer friendship and opportunities for learning more of God's will in this place and in this generation.

Refreshments are served in the hall following most Sunday services – please do stay for a chat over a cuppa and a biscuit.

Next Sunday morning – centenary event

As part of our centenary celebrations, next Sunday we continue our monthly series of special preachers in when Revd. Gordon Lemmon will lead our morning worship. Gordon was minister at Castle Street from 1973 to 1980, and is now retired and living in Sheringham.

Back to Church Sunday – new dates for your diary

The recent Pastoral and Family Committee have enthusiastically agreed to sign up Castle Street to “Back to Church Sunday 2014”. More details will be in the next edition of Castle View, but please note in your diaries that our “Back to Church Sunday” will be Harvest Sunday 28th September and that there are four sessions of preparation, open to absolutely everyone – Wednesdays 2nd, 9th, 16th and 23rd July from 7.30pm to 9.15pm, and starting with tea or coffee.

Sankta Sunniva Chamber Choir – concert at St. Giles’

This choir, from Bergen in Norway, is making a short summer tour in and around London. The tour includes a performance in Cambridge at St. Giles’ Church on the evening of Friday 4th July. They will present an evening of beautiful music by Paul Mealor, Anton Bruckner and Levente Gyöngyösi, and the concert will begin at 7.30pm. The conductor is Tore Kloster, and organists are Robin Walker (Alison’s husband) and Øystein Nødtvedt – Robin has worked with them regularly for about fifteen years in the UK and Norway, and Alison says they are excellent! There are no tickets, but a donation of £5 is suggested.

Sturton Street Community Open Day – help needed

One of the final events at Sturton Street Methodist Church is to be a Community Open Day on Saturday 19th July, from 12 noon until 4pm. There is to be a barbeque, games, performances, tea and cakes, a display on the history of the church, and the chance to meet local groups. But they need help! If you’re able to help in any way, perhaps by baking cakes, loaning a traditional fete game, or just helping on the day, then please sign up on the sheet on the notice board or contact Revd. Alison Walker. Help to make their final Community Open Day a happy and successful one.

St. Giles' Fair – yesterday afternoon

Thank you to all who helped with our stall at the St. Giles' Fair yesterday, whether it was donating items or physically assisting. Castle Street's stall raised the sum of £77.98 for the Cambridge Foodbank.

MHA Music Therapy Appeal – “In the Moment”

The Radio 4 Appeal on Sunday 6th July at 7.55am and 9.26pm (repeated on Thursday 10th July at 3.27pm) will be given by MHA Patron Pam Rhodes. She will ask listeners to donate to MHA's Music Therapy Appeal, helping people with dementia to find their voices and themselves every day. More details about this appeared on the notice sheet two weeks ago.

MHA envelopes were given out three weeks ago; if you'd like to make a donation but haven't yet, please place your filled envelope in the offering plate or pass to one of the stewards as soon as possible.

Dave... a conference for men

This event is taking place at Wesley Methodist Church next Saturday (28th June), from 9am until 3.30pm. It will look at why men don't go to church. Tickets cost £10, and will include breakfast and lunch; they can be obtained from the Wesley Church Office or Jason de Vaux.

Concert by St. Augustine's Chamber Choir

St. Augustine's Chamber Choir (conductor: Philip Mead) will perform a programme of works by Victoria, Byrd, Tippett, Tavener, Janequin and Mead at St. Botolph's Church, Trumpington Street, next Saturday (28th June) at 1pm.
