

CASTLE STREET METHODIST CHURCH

"Where all are welcome – all the time"

www.castlestreet.org.uk

Sunday 16th October 2016

Welcome to worship with us – whether this is the first time you have entered our church, or if you are a long-standing member of our congregation. We seek to offer friendship and opportunities for learning more of God's will in this place and in this generation.

Refreshments are served in the hall following most Sunday services – please do stay for a chat over a cuppa and a biscuit.

Circuit service next Sunday evening (at Castle Street)

Next Sunday evening's service will be a celebration of three anniversaries. First, it marks the two hundredth anniversary of the Cambridge Circuit. We also recognise long service from two of our local preachers – sixty years from John Baker, and fifty from Else Salmon. Please do come along at 6.30pm and join the celebration.

Table Talk this term

Table Talk this week is based on 1 and 2 Corinthians, "The promise and problem of Paul". All are welcome – come along at 7pm for a cooked meal around a table (please let Alison know if you want food), or at 8pm for coffee and talk.

The programme for the rest of the term is:

- Fri 4th Nov: Film night with SCM (at the Arts Picturehouse)
- Wed 9th Nov: Holiness and Justice (2) – what is "social holiness" and what is "scriptural holiness"?
- Wed 16th Nov: "Reconciling Paul" (2) – Paul in the context of ancient Corinth (based on 2 Corinthians 1: 1 - 2: 4)
- Wed 23rd Nov: Holiness and Justice (3) – a chance to respond to Rachel Lampard's sermon "Oceans of Justice"
- Wed 30th Nov: Holiness and Justice (4) – using David Field's article Holiness, social justice and the mission of the Church: John Wesley's insights in contemporary context

Murder in a Grand Manner – next Saturday evening at 7pm

Don't miss the splendid murder mystery evening next Saturday! The fiendish script is by that master of crime, David Wyatt, and there is a stellar cast of Castle Street luvvies and some guest performers. A leisurely three course meal will be served during the performance to provide nourishment for the intellect as you try to identify the perpetrator of the heinous crime. Tickets are £12 for adults and £3 for children, including food. If you've not yet reserved your place, speak to Joyce or Mike Sharpe, or e-mail mike dot sharpe at btclick dot com. This event is too good to miss. Proceeds are in aid of MHA (Methodist Homes for the Aged).

Letter Cutting Movement – Monday 24th October at Wesley Church

An illustrated lecture by Lida Kindersley, letter cutter, stone carver and type designer, on Monday 24th October at Wesley Methodist Church, starting at 7.45pm (with refreshments from 7pm). The lecture is part of the Cambridge “Festival of Ideas” whose theme this year is “Movement”.

In her talk Lida Kindersley explores letter cutting as an artistic movement and opens up the photographic archive of the Cardozo Kindersley Workshop that stretches back to the 1930s, providing a rare insight into the prolific and varied body of work from the workshop, based nearby on Victoria Road. Lida is currently working on the college crest and entrance gates which will soon be installed in the new buildings at Wesley House.

An Exhibition tracing the evolution of letter cutting in the Kindersley Workshop over the past seventy years will be displayed in the church for three days – Saturday, Sunday and Monday – leading up to the lecture.

No tickets are required for the lecture. There will be a retiring collection, to be donated to the Wesley House Bursary Fund. For more information, see www.festivalofideas.cam.ac.uk/events/letter-cutting-movement.

“Big Issues”: Thursday 27th October at Histon Methodist Church

Nicky Newton, Community Fundraising Manager at Addenbrooke’s Hospital will give a talk entitled “From Leeches to Laser” marking the hospital’s 250th Anniversary. It starts at 7.30pm.

“Faith to Live By”: One Woman’s Ministry – beyond the Church

Rev. Joy Levine will reflect on her fifty years of experience and challenge, two ordinations, and work in many sectors. Haslingfield Methodist Church, Sunday 30th October at 6.30pm.

Job vacancy – Office Manager and Receptionist at Wesley House

This is a full-time post, normally working 9am to 5pm Mondays to Fridays and with a salary of between £25,000 and £27,000. For more information (and to apply for the job) contact Alastair Oatey (e-mail: aio22@cam.ac.uk). Closing date for applications is 9am on Monday 31st October, with interviews on Wednesday 9th November.

British Heart Foundation – Life-Saving Skills

More than 30,000 cardiac arrests happen out of hospitals in the UK each year. Less than one in ten of these people survive. The British Heart Foundation is organising some free life saving skills training at its Furniture and Electrical Store, 164-167 East Road (where Bobby works) this Tuesday (18th October). The training session lasts for less than an hour and start at 11am, 12 noon, 1pm, 2pm and 3pm. To book a place, ring (01223) 362 213.

New CD of organ music from Robin Walker

Robin's newest CD has just arrived, and there's a launch concert at St. Catharine's College on Saturday 22nd October at 6pm. The concert will last about forty-five minutes (so there should just be time to get to Castle Street for the Murder Mystery Evening), and is free. CDs will be on sale.

Cambridge Churches Homeless Project

There's an item about this in the October Castle View, but we're still looking for a few volunteers: although the rota for December is just about sorted out, extra pairs of hand (especially for January, February and March) would be very welcome. We're hosting on Wednesday nights. We need someone to be at church between 7.45 and 8am to receive the kit, people to prepare cooked meals for the evening, people to stay between 7 and 9pm, people to stay overnight, and people to help clear up from 7am on Thursdays. Any volunteers, please speak to Alison or Ank. You will need to attend a training session early next month (dates in Castle View).

Items for the November Castle View...

... should be with Anna (e-mail: mattandannawilliams at yahoo dot co dot uk) or Cassie (e-mail: cassandra dot morris dot miet at gmail dot com) by Wednesday (19th) please.

Please contact Brian Carter if you have any items for inclusion on next Sunday's notice sheet, ideally by Friday evening.
