Jo hosts our next summer social in her flat (address on the printed notices and in Castle View). There will be tea, fruit and yoghurt. Bring a favourite piece of music, on vinyl, tape, CD or MP3. Note that Jo's flat is on the first floor, and there's no lift. The final Summer Social of this year will be on the afternoon of Saturday 19th August, at the home of the Williams family – see Castle View for more details.

Evening preachers swapped back

The observant will notice that the preachers for this evening and next Sunday evening are now as originally planned...

Prayer Walk for Refugees

A group of Christians from multicultural and traditional denominations are doing a prayer walk for refugees from Cambridge to Ely (along the river bank) on Saturday 19th August. Starting at Pembroke College at 9am, there will be ten-minute periods of prayer at the start, at Waterbeach and at Upware, and there will be the opportunity to attend Evensong at Ely Cathedral at 5.30pm, which will be followed by a Pilgrims' Welcome in the Lady Chapel at 6.30pm.

The walk serves two purposes – to express prayerful concern about the refugee crisis; and to meet and learn about each other, celebrating, rather than fearing diversity. The whole walk is 17 miles, but it is possible to leave (or join) at Waterbeach (6 miles) at about midday or Upware (10 miles) at about 2pm. To find out more, contact James Gardom, Dean and Chaplain of Pembroke College, (e-mail: jtdg2@cam.ac.uk) or express your interest at <https://tinyurl.com/CamElyRefugee>.

Petition regarding Fairtrade tea at Sainsbury's

Details about this petition, urging Sainsbury's not to ditch the official Fairtrade standards and certification on its own-brand products, have appeared on the notice sheets for the last two weeks (available on the church website). As Castle Street is officially a Fairtrade church and has also been involved in Fairtrade campaigning for many years, we would encourage people to sign it – the petition can be found on the change.org website at <http://bit.ly/2sDTd1g>.

Junior Church and First Friends outing – next Sunday afternoon

Details can be found in Castle View about this trip next Sunday afternoon (13th August) to the Grantchester Woodland Railway, run by the Cambridge Model Engineering Society. It's just behind the Cambridge Rugby Club, at the end of Fulbrooke Road in Newnham. They will base themselves on a picnic blanket in the central grass area, and will be there from about 1.30pm. All ages are welcome – from the very young to the very old.

Midsummer Meditations in the Haslingfield Methodist Church Garden

Drop in at any time, but between 8.45am and 11.30am on Tuesday you can also enjoy cakes and coffee in the Pop-Up Coffee Shop in aid of Macmillan Cancer Support.
